Trent Trust Weekly Financial Report

(Too late for last issue.)

(Special to the Garden Island)

Trading in the stock market was quite brisk during the week, and of a more interesting nature than for several weeks past.

The improvement in Raw in the fore part of the week helped materially in moving several blocks of stock that had been on the market for considerable time. The market has a very firm tone with all the trading issues in demand.

Ewa is less active than the others but is holding steady around $31 1-4.

The feature of the week was the heavy trading in Hawaiian Sugar at $11 1-2. About 1200 shares changed hands at this figure. Practically all was sold for a former resident of the Islands. The market absorbed this stock very well, and more could be disposed of at the same figure. This stock is held in good favor as an investment, as fluctuations in same are light.

In the absence of mail advices from the coast, little can be said of the raw sugar market.

At the annual meeting of the Pa-hang Rubber Co. it was decided to issue $30,000 of the Treasury stock of which there is $50,000 still un-issued. The present stockholders will have the privilege of subscribing at par in proportion to their present holdings.

The stocks closed to-day as follows:—

Ewa $31-1/4 bid; $31-1/2 asked Oahu 30-1/4 bid; 30-3/4 asked H. C. & S 39-1/4 bid; 39-3/4 asked Waialua 112-3/4 bid; 113-1/2 asked Pioneer 205 bid; none offering Olaa 4-5/8 bid; 4-3/4 asked McBryde 6-3/4 bid; 7 asked
